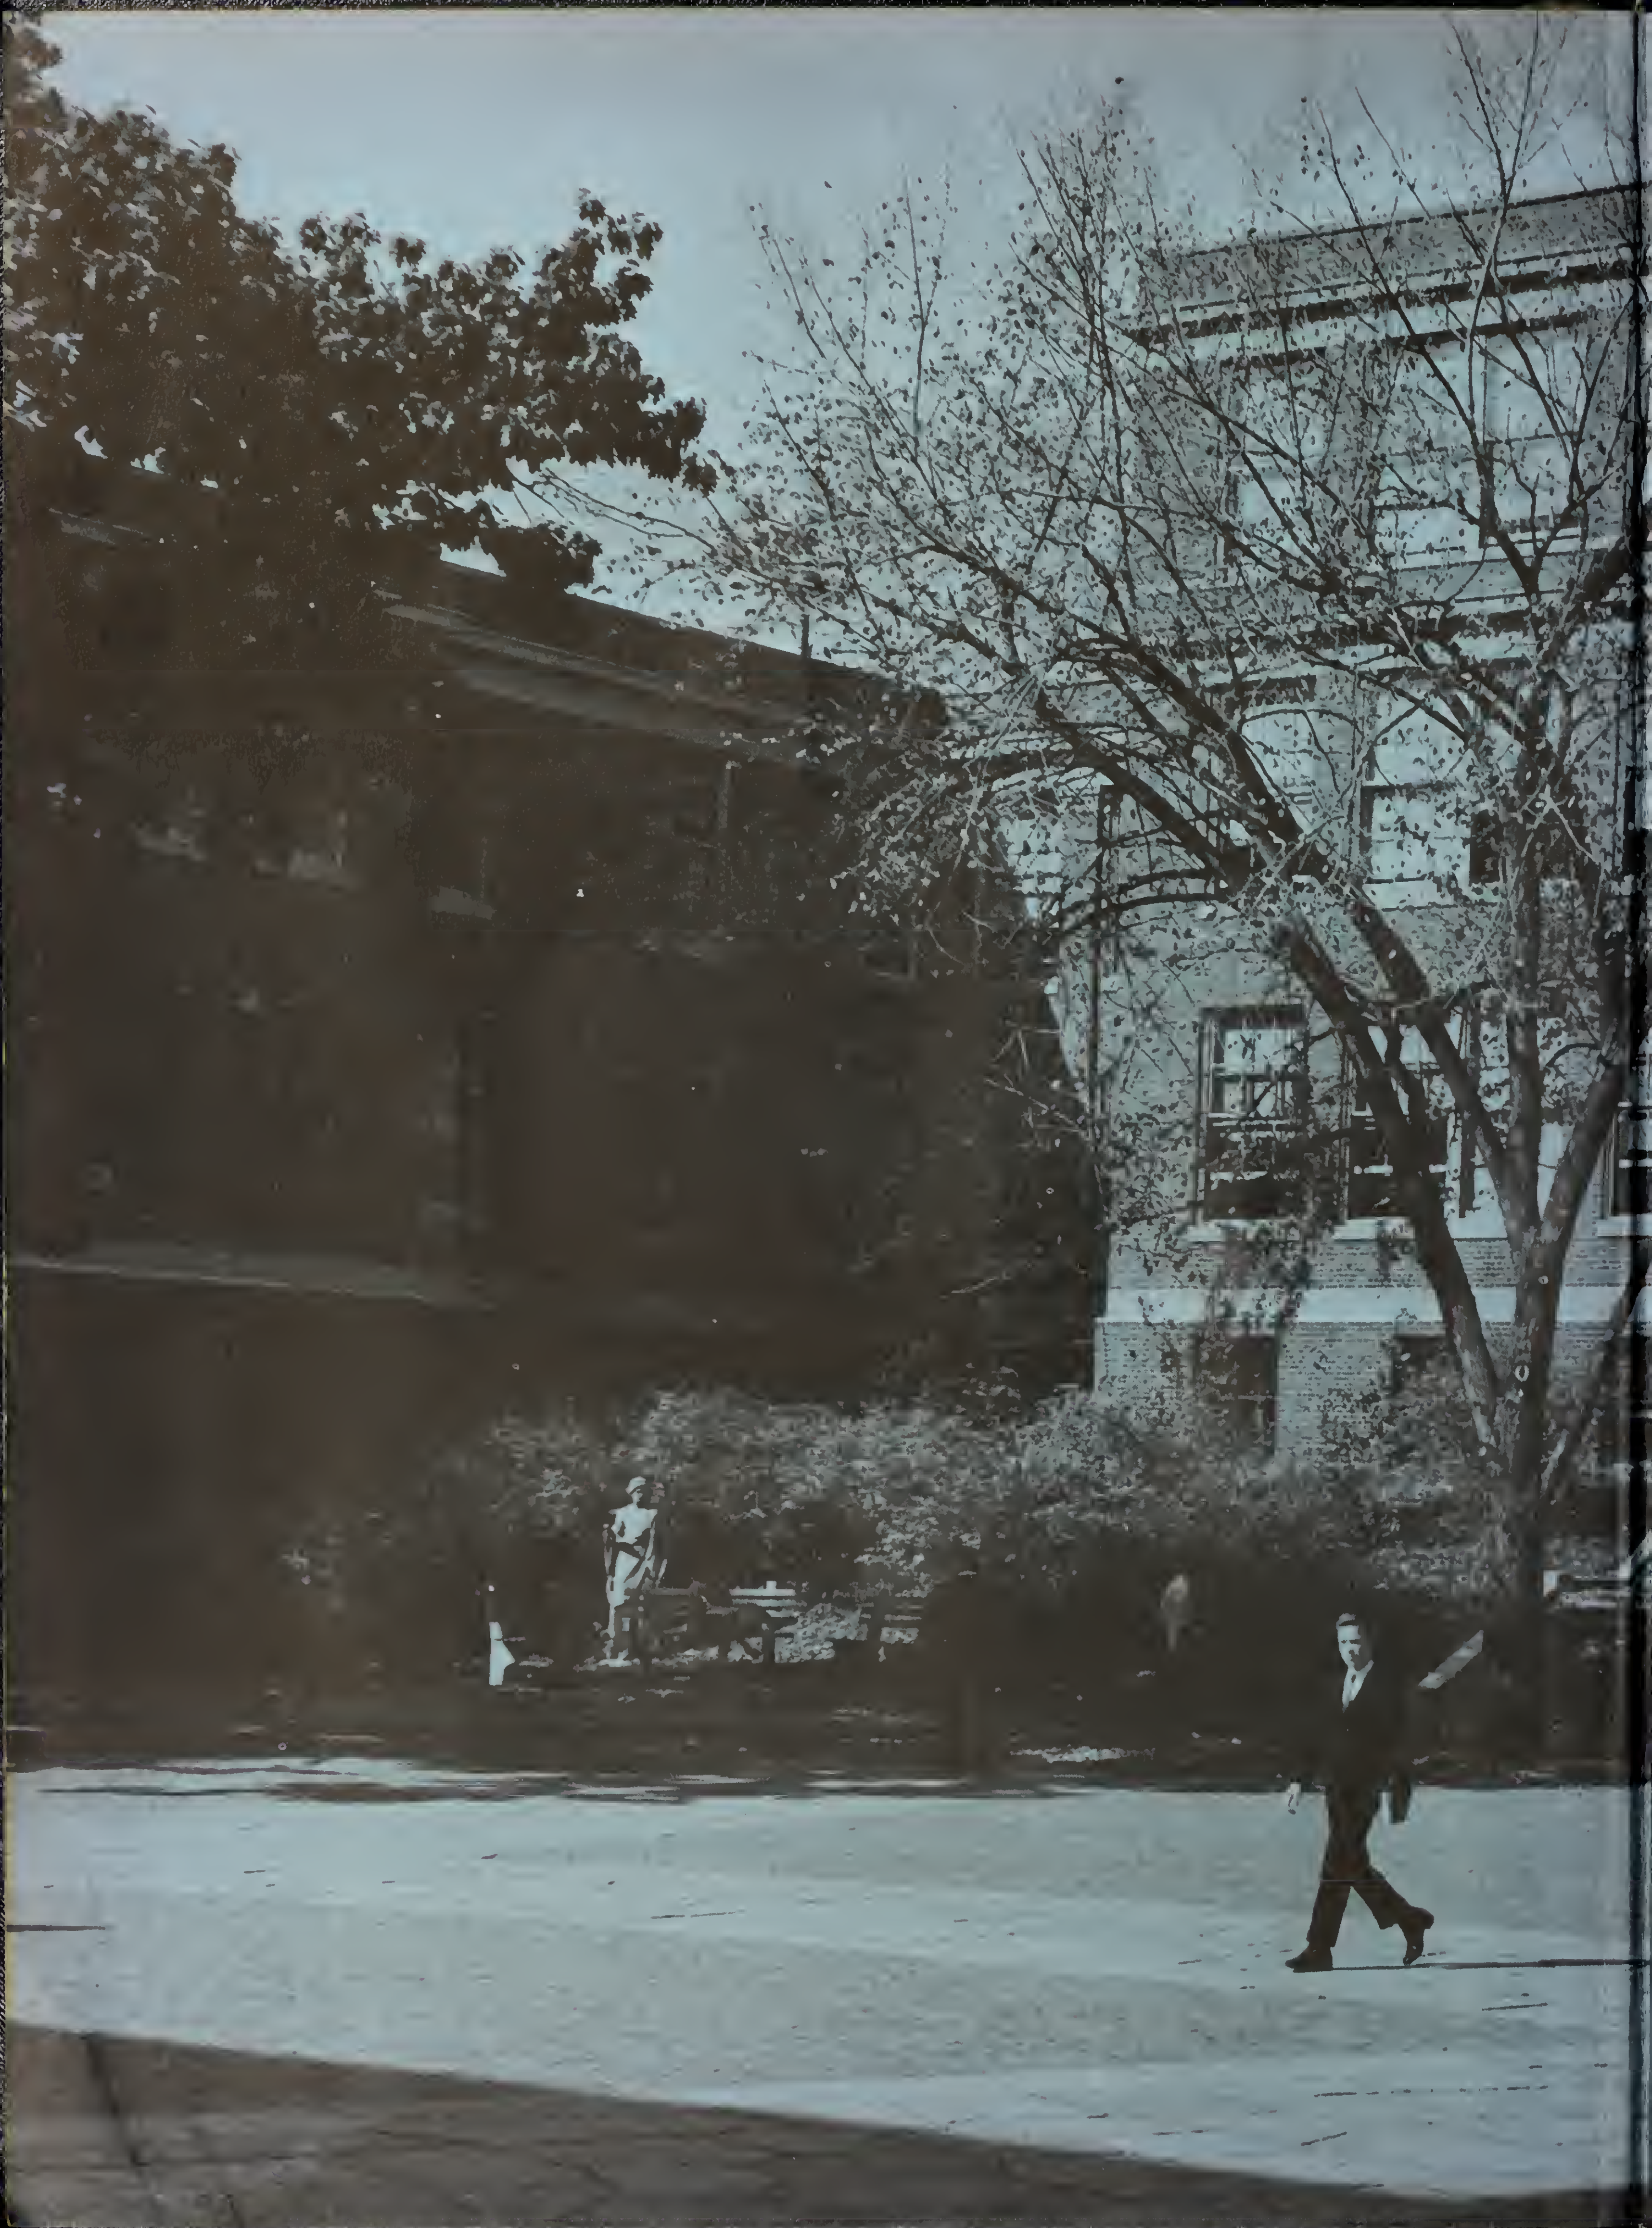
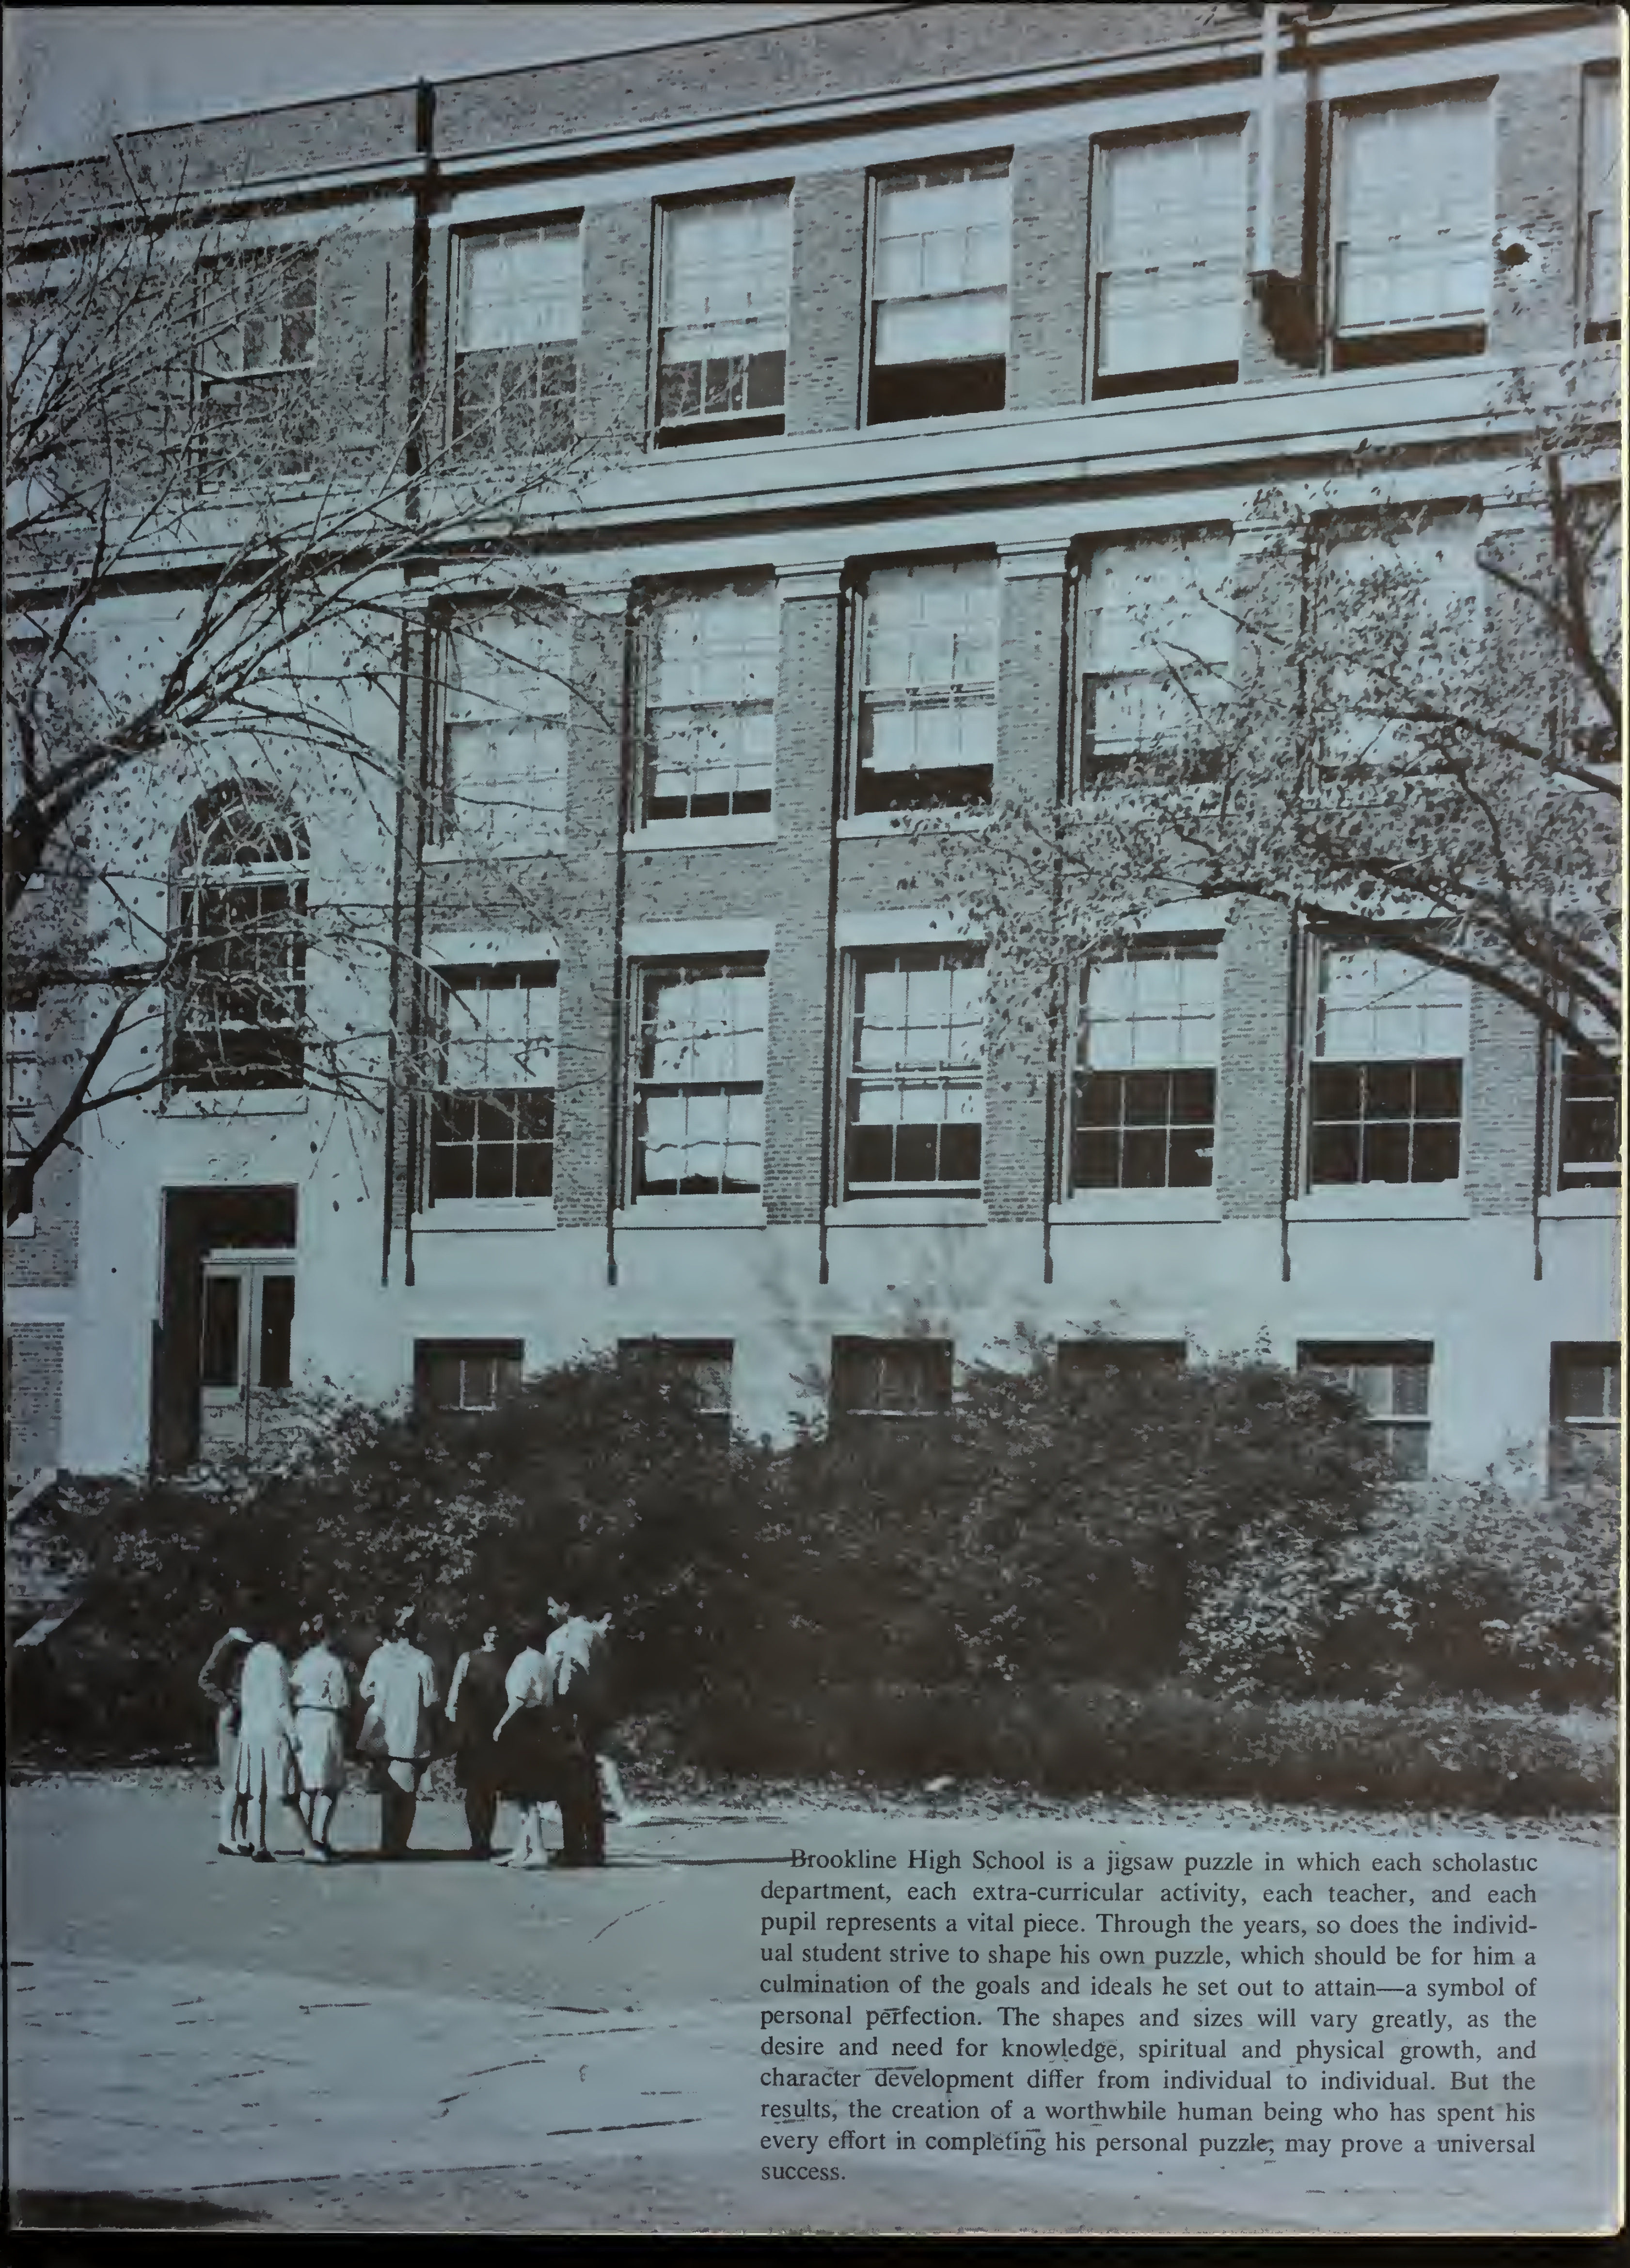
MURIVIAN





Brookline High School is a jigsaw puzzle in which each scholastic department, each extra-curricular activity, each teacher, and each pupil represents a vital piece. Through the years, so does the individual student strive to shape his own puzzle, which should be for him a culmination of the goals and ideals he set out to attain—a symbol of personal perfection. The shapes and sizes will vary greatly, as the desire and need for knowledge, spiritual and physical growth, and character development differ from individual to individual. But the results, the creation of a worthwhile human being who has spent his every effort in completing his personal puzzle, may prove a universal success.

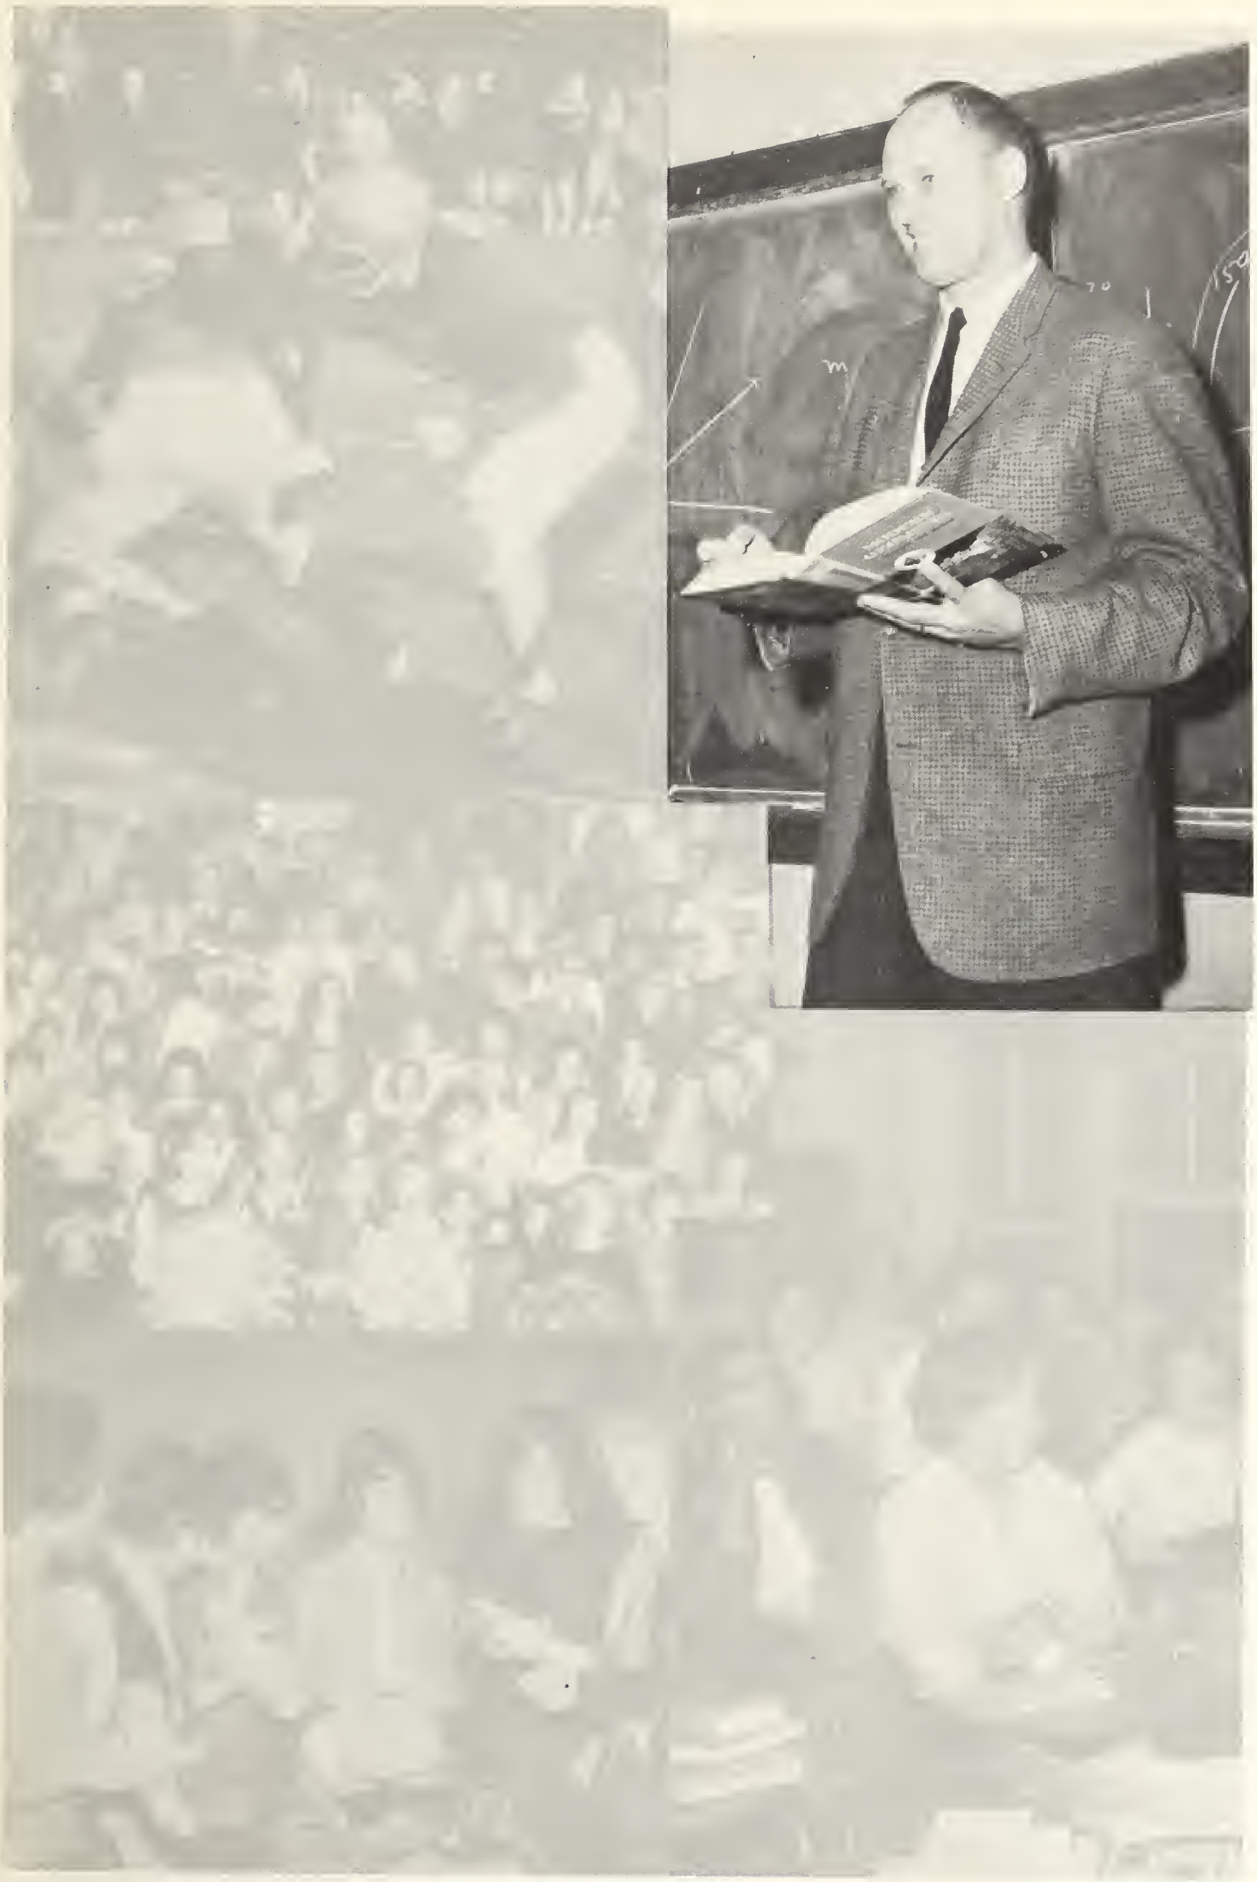
MISS MARGARET DRISCOLL

DEDICATION 1964

Brookline High School in an immense puzzle composed of many intricate parts, each of which must fit perfectly into place. Miss Margaret Driscoll has always been active in arranging the complex pattern of our high school life. During a student's four years at Brookline High, both he and his parents profit from her extensive service to the school. She has endeared herself to all the girls who have benefited from her understanding leadership in the Girls' League. As a guidance counsellor and a chemistry teacher, Miss Driscoll has enlightened and enriched her pupils. By supervising the calendar of events and acting as recording secretary of the P.T.O., she organizes vital parts of the school's activities. Without Miss Driscoll Brookline High School would be minus an important piece of its jigsaw puzzle.



ADMINISTRATION

A teacher who can arouse a feeling for one single good action, for one single good poem, accomplishes more than he who fills our memory with rows of natural objects, classified with name and form. Goethe

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Although few BHS students have personal contact with members of the School Committee, we are all directly affected by the decisions of this body. We owe much to this dedicated group of men and women, who manage so adeptly the affairs of our school system and enable us to maintain our high scholastic standards.

HEADMASTER

To the Class of 1964:

As you approach graduation I am sure you do so with mixed emotions. You look ahead with eagerness to the next step and also glance backward with some feeling at the high-school days about to end.

You have been in school at a time when the public schools have become a battleground for social change as never before. The public school has become a channel for the upsurge of efforts to obtain full civil rights for all citizens. Thus, education attains new importance as an instrument for effecting the concept of human brotherhood.

We have gone through a period of national tragedy, especially poignant for us in Brookline, which brought to us with stark clarity our vulnerability to the ravages of those who do not respect the rights of their fellow man, whether in high or low estate, to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We see that our true enemies are hatred and violence and realize that we all must dedicate ourselves with renewed determination to the principles on which our nation was founded.

So I challenge you to go forth as militant advocates of the idea each generation must learn for itself and which seems so hard for many to accept, that we all must heed God's command for each of us to be, indeed, his brother's keeper.

IN APPRECIATION

DR. ERNEST CAVERLY

It is my distinct honor and privilege to represent the students of the Public Schools of Brookline in paying tribute to Dr. Ernest Caverly. I am sure I do not have to tell you, his teachers and his friends, what his great responsibilities have been; as a student not in direct contact with him, I do not know them all. I could not comment, as could Miss Macdonald or Dr. Holland or his other administrators and teachers, on how Dr. Caverly has never faltered in the face of a challenge, because, as is the case with most students, I have never met him. Yet, speaking for all the youth of Brookline, I know as well as anyone the greatness of his person, because I am a student in the school system which he has guided in becoming among the leading in the country.

His guidance and influence are reflected not only in this great school system, not only in the high standards these schools have established, but mainly, his person is reflected in the personnel he has selected and directed to serve the youth of Brookline. Thus, indirectly I do know Dr. Caverly very well, for I know the administrators, the principals, and the teachers who daily implement his philosophy of education. They are the part of Dr. Caverly that the students know best, and they are the part of Dr. Caverly that will remain long after he has retired.

I do know also of the advances that the Brookline Public Schools have made in the past 33 years, many of which established precedents in the state and even the country.

I do know of the fine education that we as students receive here in Brookline. I do know of the esteem in which the Brookline Public Schools are held by institutions of higher learning and educators from all parts of America.

And so, all the other students of Brookline and I really do know Dr. Caverly well, although we seldom see him. No one can ever replace all he has done for us. We will miss what he stood for, what he has worked for. We will miss his great image. We forever have the benefits of what he has accomplished; and certainly after 33 years of service, he could spend another 33 years reflecting with pride over these accomplishments.

Speaking for the youth of Brookline, I wish Dr. Caverly the happiness he so richly deserves. I would also like to try to express the gratitude of some 60,000 students who have graduated from the Brookline Public Schools since 1931, and the insurmountable debt we owe this man.

In the light of Dr. Caverly's retirement, the motto of the Brookline Public Schools has been cited often as an expression of appreciation: "We serve youth that youth may learn to serve." Here, I answer for the youth of Brookline. Dr. Ernest Roscoe Caverly has served youth—served us well, and under his guidance, his direction, his influence, we, the youth, have learned to serve. Dr. Caverly, we thank you.

CHESTER S. WEINERMAN
President, Brookline High School Council.

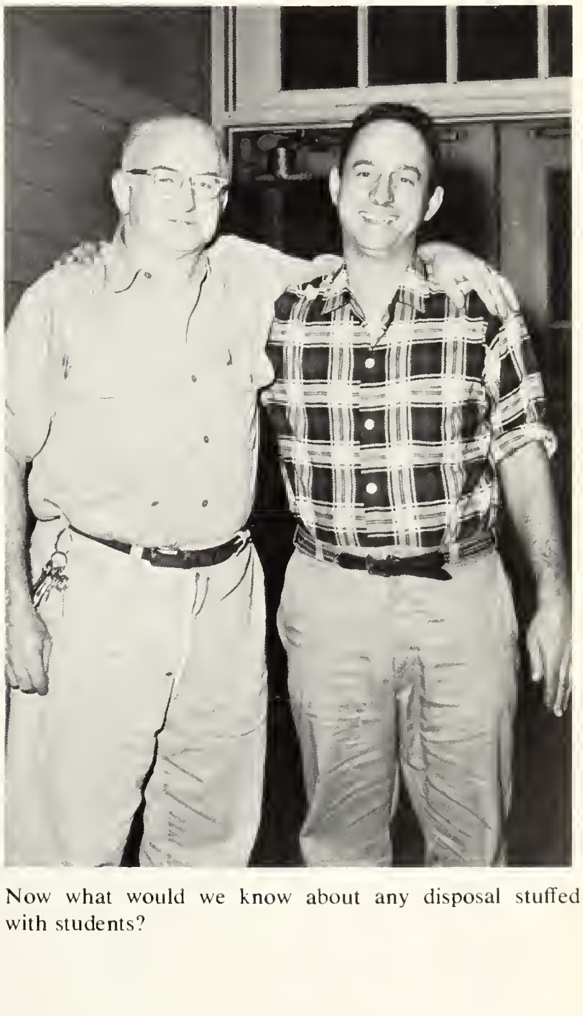
Now all those who have heard of Abraham Lincoln place your right hands on your hearts.

It's not the way you win that counts, it's the way you play the game.

Well, you tell me what you think it is and I'll tell you what I think it is.



Now what would we know about any disposal stuffed with students?

In other words, it can cut you, but you can't cut it.

AKERS HOUSE

We welcome the opportunity that comes for the last time to address the students of Akers House through the pages of the Murivian. We salute you as scholars, athletes, school citizens, and very close friends. Ours has been a wonderful journey together and on its way we have sampled joys, sorrows, uncertainties, hopes and satisfactions that give zest to life and promise for the future.

Distilled from these experiences and those which follow, will come the guide lines by which you will conduct your adult lives. We are proud to have had part in your education. We wish for you all a generous share in the satisfactions of work well done and remind you that the most important way to get them is to render the best service you can to others.

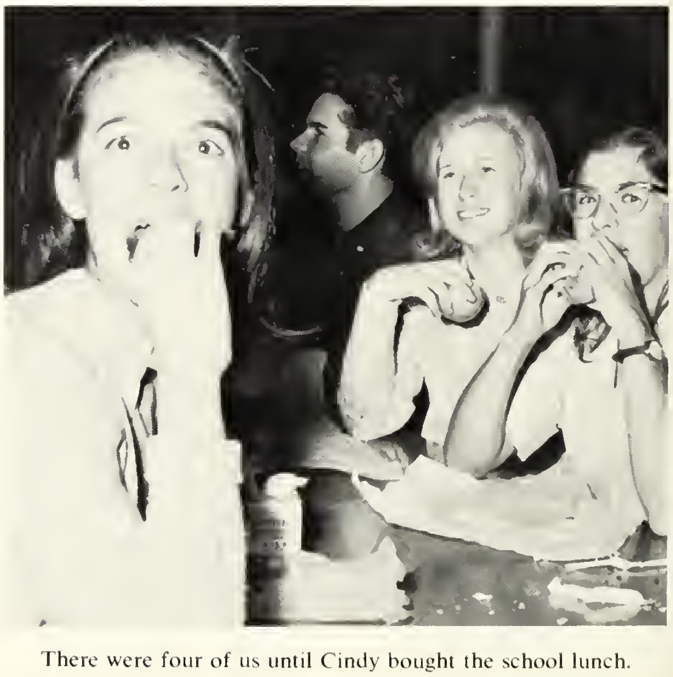
Why don't we just drop the subject, Mr. Dobras.

And here are Brookline High School students anxiously awaiting a nourishing lunch.

Now who believes in haunted classrooms—who opened that door?

Humor her, girls, today she thinks she's Moses.



There were four of us until Cindy bought the school lunch.

PACKARD HOUSE

To the Students of Packard House:

"Let's not look back in anger or forward in fear but around in awareness," James Thurber once said.

It is our hope that you will meet the possibilities and the problems of the months ahead with wisdom, enthusiasm, diligence, confidence, and the awareness that you do not face them alone.

These can be days of joy, good fellowship, and self-fulfillment. So let them be. Look happily and hopefully forward. Look wisely and well around you.

SHAILER HOUSE

To the Members of Shailer House:

Many of you are now experiencing some of the rewards which come to those who are actually and creatively engaged in their daily activities whether they involve a science project, a book report, class discussion or committee work for a house dance. Your individual interest and enthusiasm can spread from one to another until the result will be an active, genuine school spirit, which repesents pride in your school as well as pride in yourselves.

Your parents, your teachers, and your counselors are helping you to plan your careers. Your capable class officers are planning activities which will reach and expand your interests. Each one of you can find the opportunity to share with others your special talent in one form or another. If this can truly happen, we in Shailer House can expect a very rich experience in our four years together.

ROBERTS HOUSE

Victor E. Dobras

Martha R. Murdock

Greetings to Roberts House:

When I talked with you prior to your coming to Brookline High School, I predicted that we would be a House characterized by enthusiasm and a spirit of getting things done. In our first year, we have demonstrated very well the truth of my prediction.

In sports, in school activities like clubs and campaigns, in cooperation, and in school study and achievement, we have made excellent advances. Be sure that we shall make even greater progress, since we have already moved promptly into a true House organization.

A wise writer once said, "A man's reach should exceed his grasp." Our ambition is to build upon our present success an even great achievement in the years ahead. Toward that end we shall continue to initiate new projects and original activities that will make every year one to look forward to with pride.

Our talented Assistant-Housemaster has become endeared to the girls and boys both. Her understanding and helpfulness will continue to enrich your lives and school experiences. Words are inadequate to describe the appreciation that we all have for Miss Martha R. Murdock.

Keep up the good work and we shall continue to have outstanding success.

Victor E. Dobras
Housemaster

I bought a model of the Statue of Liberty yesterday to send to my mother, but the label on the bottom said Made in Japan.

Didn't anyone tell them not to dance to it?

Remember now—no flute solo in the Star-Spangled Banner.

WINTER CARNIVAL

The PTA will go to any extreme to keep BHS students happy. Here we have a picture of half-time activity during a basketball game.

ART CLUB

It has been said: "When love and skill work yet together, expect a masterpiece." If this philosophy is well-founded, then the Art Club must be a most creative and masterful group, for its members possess both of these components. We are constantly reminded of their originality as we walk along the third floor corridors. The Art Club is beneficial not only to its members but also to those of us less gifted.

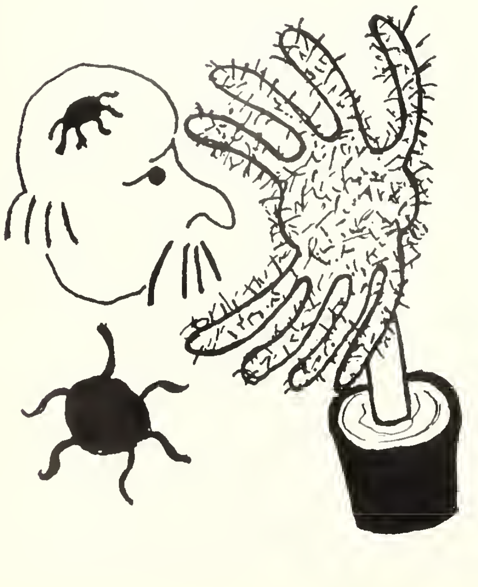
BIOLOGY CLUB

Double, double, toil and trouble. The Biology Club works busily over its steaming cauldron as the pungent odor of great globs of gopher giblets tenderly mixed with marinated monkey meat sneaks through the crack under the door and settles in the form of a thick mist on third floor halls. The club, however, is not limited to would-be witches, but is open to all science enthusiasts with strong stomachs and insensitive noses. Grab your face mask and join the crew!



BRIDGE CLUB

Members of the newly founded Bridge Club have certainly helped to "bridge a gap" in the range of extracurricular activities offered at BHS. These students, who periodically band together in foursomes to battle each other with clubs (also hearts, spades and diamonds) in hand, earnestly maintain that such skirmishes provide the much sought relief from scholastic tensions.

Rozanne Marel, Co-Founder; Mr. Lyons, Betsy Seligson, Co-Founder.

CAMERA CLUB

Members of the Camera Club can be easily identified by a common distinguishable characteristic—one eye remains constantly shut while the other peers around for photogenic objects. After these eager shutterbugs find what they are looking for, they get to work in the dark room developing and enlarging. If they are lucky the results of their skill and awareness will be displayed at the annual photography council.

CHESS CLUB

The checkerboard square is not only the trade-mark of the Ralston Purina Company, but also the symbol of the BHS Chess Club. Intellectuals, pseudo-intellectuals, and average students alike who have graduated from tiddly-winks and checkers can now engage their minds in the more challenging sport of chess.

DEBATING SOCIETY

"Resolved: the BHS Debating Society encourages loquaciousness and strengthens its members' ability to convince their fellow students of the pros or cons of today's topical questions." Students learn to debate skillfully only through constant practice with others who enjoy good argument. The Debating Society of BHS affords its members ample opportunity to compete in intramural and inter-scholastic debates.

DRAMATICS SOCIETY

Any person interested in some form of dramatics, be it acting, directing, or working backstage, can find a place for himself as a member of the Dramatics Society. This organization allows the student to try his hand at any of the numerous aspects of dramatics productions. The society not only produces plays for the BHS student body, but also participates in an exchange program with other schools.

FOLK SONG CLUB

Three years ago, Brookline became one of the first high schools to organize a folk song group. The club introduces its members to the art of folk music through programs featuring guests, semi-technical discussions, work shops, and plain singing. Several performing groups are sponsored by the club. The most important one is the Elementary School Folk Song Group that sings traditional folk music for kindergarten and first grade classes in Brookline. The Folk Music Club continues to be BHS' most unusual organization.

But she already told you she ate your shirt! Are you trying to make her cough it up?

FOREIGN STUDENT EXCHANGE CLUB

When a foreign student is warmly received by a student of the United States, one more step has been taken toward the creation of international understanding. Each year through the efforts of the Student Exchange Club, foreign students join the Brookline community and, in turn, a Brookline student may be sent abroad for the summer or for the year. The Club sponsors informal meetings and exchange programs with other schools, which provide ample opportunity for students to secure invaluable friendships with foreign guests.

FRENCH CLUB

One of the largest and most popular clubs is the Cercle Français. Under the supervision of Miss Tondreau and Miss Sanders, the club presents monthly meetings at which students can supplement their classroom knowledge through films, plays, and discussions. If at some Friday morning assembly you hear a student chanting the Marseillaise instead of The Star Spangled Banner, you will recognize a fellow member of the French Club.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

Why be bewildered by the sight of a dress pattern or confused when face to face with a chicken? The prospect of running a home need not be frightening. While still in high school, girls have the unique opportunity to become expert in homemaking skills through the meetings of the FHA. Some members may be fortunate enough to attend the national convention. Surely many homemakers are thankful that they were once members of the BHS FHA.

FUTURE NURSES

The complexity of medicine continually increases and the demands upon the intelligence and dedication of our nurses increase proportionately. Members of the FNA become acquainted with nursing procedures through club programs, films, and work in the high school health department. These activities help to acquaint the future nurses with their duties and responsibilities.

FUTURE TEACHERS

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence will stop," wrote Henry Adams. The members of the FTA of America are eager to undertake the responsibility of educating the nation's youth. Already involved in the teaching profession by acting as kindergarten aides and attending lectures, the teachers of tomorrow are gaining worthwhile experience today.

First Row: Linda Brezniak, Vice-President; Carol Chuculate, President. Second Row: Judy Kline, Secretary; Dinah Sargon, Treasurer. Absent: Cynthia Spack, Corresponding Secretary.

GERMAN CLUB

Under the leadership of Mr. Friedland, the German Club acquaints its members with the German people and their way of life. At meetings, where only German is spoken, members see colorful slides of the country and discuss the culture. By means of these gatherings, German students acquire a new enjoyment of the course. No student studying German should say auf Wiedersehen to the high school without enjoying the advantages of the German Club.

First Row: Martha Dannenberg, Gerald Indorf, Larry Stuart Deutch, Susan Sandler. Second Row: Mr. Friedland, Myra Woods, John Reardon, John Kuhn, Krayna Epstein.

Now if we told them all to look at the camera, those same two would probably look at the photograph.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

If you are in a coeducational rut or tired of dating, then the Girls' League is the club for you. Members enjoy themselves while helping others. Each year their volunteer work and scrapbook drive are appreciated and recognized throughout Boston hospitals. Members with a flair for writing, entertaining, or speaking, find themselves worthwhile positions working on skits, teas, and other programs. The feeling of achievement is rewarding; friendships gained through the League are everlasting. What more could a girl want? What do you mean —boys?!

LATIN CLUB

This year, with an increased membership and range of activities, the Latin Club has demonstrated that it is truly a "lingua viva." Proof of its living quality is found by examining the many professions for which knowledge of Latin is a necessary preparation. Through the club newspaper, "Nova Latina," guest speakers, and student-prepared skits, members learn about imperial glory, classical literature, and Roman rascality.

LITERARY SOCIETY

Today members of the Literary Society, tomorrow famous authors. Potential literary giants as well as appreciators of prose find much enjoyment at club meetings. Not only well-established novels, but also original works of members are discussed. The Literary Leaves, an annual publication, contains many of these. Activities of the society increase the members' appreciation and enjoyment of books.

MATH SOCIETY

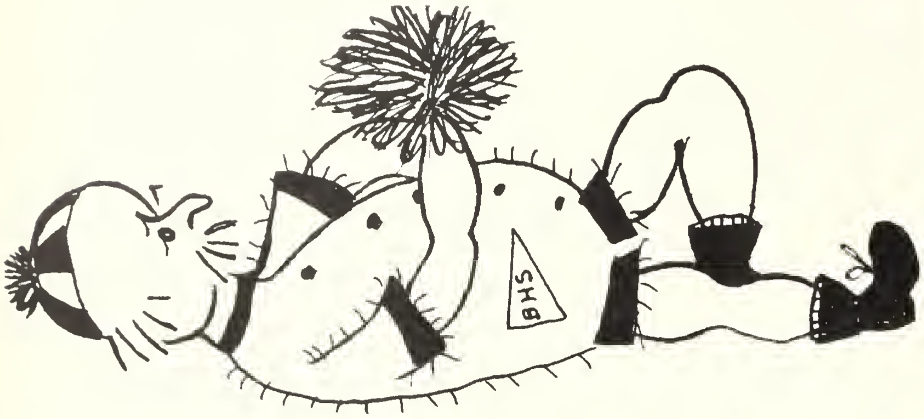
"Algebra . . . Geometry . . . Trigonometry . . . Calculus"—for some students these words evoke shudders of horror and conjure up awful memories of disastrous math classes. To the members of the Math Society, however, they have quite a different meaning. The Society is specifically designed to instruct students who wish to increase their knowledge of the newest mathematical advances. By presenting various lecturers who speak on topics in the field of mathematics, the club is an entertaining as well as informative organization.

MENTAL HEALTH CLUB

Sponsoring activities and participating in programs for the mentally ill, the members of the Mental Health Club have worked industriously throughout the year. Saturday night parties for retarded teenagers and special counseling projects with leading psychologists provide the students with an opportunity to further understand the problems of mental illness.

First Row: Betsy Zanditon, Dinah Sargon, Peter Mason, President; Emily Starr, Vice-President; Fran Felder, Secretary-Treasurer; Susan Marks. Second Row: Mr. Resnick, Ruthanne Striar, Dan Paul, Sandy Yates, John Bingham, Nancy Bramberg.

Just pity the poor Newton player they're sitting on.



PEP CLUB

Closely affiliated with the cheerleaders and drum majorettes, our Pep Club is one of the liveliest organizations BHS has to offer. Animals (fake ones, that is), book covers, carnations, and red and blue shakers can all be readily obtained from Pep Club representatives. These active girls sponsor rallies and dances and promote the general feeling of vibrant good will permeating BHS.

RADIO-TV BROADCASTING CLUB

Radio and television are so commonplace today that most people do not bother to wonder about what goes on beyond the sound and picture, but that is where the members of the Radio-TV Broadcasting Club go wild. With the aid of experienced operators, these enthusiasts take part in Conelrad civil defense, conduct polls of listener preference, and visit local broadcasting stations. The exciting mysteries of radio and television are opened to the probings of the Radio-TV Broadcasting Club.

SKI CLUB

From amidst the legion number of parka-clad BHS students a surprisingly large segment has emerged who actually use their parkas for skiing. Last year this group banded together to form the Ski Club. In its second year, this organization has achieved an unprecedented popularity, and the trips to ski areas such as King's Ridge and Temple Mountain were overwhelming successes.

What she doesn't know is that they've been starving these boys for a week, and when the crowd yells out, "What do we eat, tiger meat . . . "

SOCIAL CUSTOMS CLUB

Open to all female students in the high school, the Social Customs Club teaches its members the arts of etiquette, dating, and good grooming. The club also encourages the development of poise which will be invaluable to its members during their school years and entire lives.

SPANISH CLUB

Members of this enthusiastic club are interested in more than simply increasing their facility with Spanish; they savor, through films, guest speakers, and group projects, the delights of sunny Spain. Throughout the year the Spanish Club has been one of our most active groups, proof of the drawing power of both Spain and the Spanish Club.

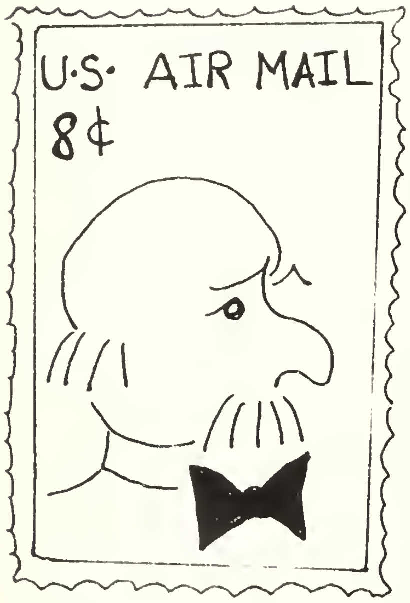
STAMP CLUB

Many people think of stamp collecting as a hobby for young children, but philately can be fascinating as well as lucrative. High school students interested in this subject gather at club meetings to trade and to discuss stamps. Among the members collectors of both foreign and rare stamps can be found. The Stamp Club is a colorful patch in BHS' jigsaw puzzle.



STUDENT FORUM

Through the Student Forum activities, members keep well informed on domestic and foreign situations. People who are actively involved in public life speak at the frequent meetings. A question and answer period follows each program for those who wish to learn more about specific areas of the topic under discussion. The forum meetings do much to liven BHS students' interest in current affairs.

AUDIO-VISUAL STAFF

How can a student truly understand biology without a true-to-life picture of the long intestine? How can he fully appreciate the Romance languages without a view of the Eiffel Tower lit up at night? Members of the Audio-Visual Staff are responsible for the operation of movie-slide projectors and tape recorders and their efforts enrich day-to-day classroom work and enhance unstimulating topics.

BANK STAFF

Every other Tuesday morning the Bank Staff swings into action. The efficient members keep accurate records of student banking totals and percentages. They perform the countless tasks which enable students to do their banking in school. By encouraging students to bank, the Bank Staff provides a valuable service to all of BHS.

First Row: Karen Poisner, Robert Bisker, Harold Theran, Corrine Morrisson. Second Row: Mr. Dwinell, Stephen Moss, Carol Cochran, David Brothers, Charles Dominez.

CENTRAL TREASURY

Do you often wonder what happens to the seemingly endless supply of money that you are constantly donating to the various clubs and organizations of BHS? Well, wonder no longer. You can get all the information from the Central Treasury. The Treasury is a vital organization which handles many of the finances that are involved in running a high school, as large as BHS. Composed mainly of students, the Treasury trains its members in various aspects of business and finance.

COURT OF JUSTICE

In the BHS puzzle each separate part must relate to the next in order to form the final, integrated society. The Court of Justice comprises a key piece of our puzzle. A strong, respected judicial organization helps curb unreasonable student behavior. In the Court, students may act either as lawyers or as Justices who hear the pleas of defendants brought before them. Through participation in Court activities, a student develops skills and gains experiences which are vital in solving more important, yet similar, puzzles of adult society.

HUMAN RELATIONS COUNCIL

Through the efforts of the Human Relations Council, foreign students find it easier to adjust to the American way of life. Members conduct English and orientation classes for those who need them. The Council also nominates seniors for the Jewish War Veterans Scholarship award.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Alexander Pope once wrote, "In faith and hope the world will disagree but all mankind's concern is charity." Each year homeroom representatives urge all students to participate in the drive to fill Red Cross gift boxes. Whether it be by helping to contribute toys and health and educational materials that will enrich the lives of children overseas, or by contributing time to organize the drive, the members of the Junior Red Cross truly prove Pope's maxim.

OFFICE AIDES

By working for housemasters and department heads during their study periods, the members of the Office Aides Club render an invaluable service to the school. They deliver passes and do simple clerical work, leaving the teachers free to perform their other duties.

STAGE AND ELECTRICAL STAFF

"Good morning! It is now 8:15." Each day we are awakened from our after-breakfast stupors with those words and reminded that we are soon due in our homerooms. We can thank the members of the Stage and Electrical Staff for their efficient maintenance of the P.A. system. To these dedicated students we are grateful for the production of sound effects and lighting which enhance the plays and assembly programs. Without the competent work of the members of the Stage and Electrical Staff, all the BHS productions would be far less enjoyable.

Robert Chin, Kalman Zaborsky, Helena Leighton, Mr. McCabe. Absent: Gerald DiBello, Manager; Barry Greenglass, Paul Cook.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Bringing a degree of democracy to BHS, the School Council approves club constitutions and supervises elections. It also sponsers the annual Winter Carnival and the Brookline Activities Ticket. Beginning next year, the entire student body rather than the members alone will elect the Council president. Such a reform will encourage increased student interest in the affairs of the organization.

Playing with two left hands is harder than you think.

Composed of talented musicians from all four houses, the band, directed by Mr. Madden, and the orchestra, directed by Mr. Joslin, bring "the sound of music" to many of our school activities. They perform at Class Day and the Winter Carnival in addition to their appearances at Friday morning assemblies. Each spring both play at the Quadrangle Concert. The band and the orchestra are fine organizations for those students already skilled in music as well as those just developing their musical talents.

ORCHESTRA

CONCERT CHOIR

"All musical people seem to be happy," said a famous philosopher. Exuberant, fun-loving Mr. Seymour makes the Concert Choir classes enjoyable for all his students. Whether singing spiritual, classical songs, or the latest South American ballad, Concert Choir members are always deeply engrossed in their work and continually striving toward perfection. "Music has charms to soothe the savage beast, to soften rocks, and bend the knotted oak." The Concert Choir makes no such promises; we only promise that our music will charm and entertain you whether you participate in the concerts or simply hear the choir at work.

She loves you—yeah, yeah, yeah . . . Hey, who changed the music?

MURIVIAN EDITORIAL STAFF

For the members of the Murivian Editorial Staff, this year has been a busy, interesting one. We have tried to fit the many puzzle pieces of high school life into a completed work of art, emphasizing the uniqueness and the inter-dependence of each part.

Our sincere thanks go to Mr. Butler, the students and the teachers who have been so cooperative as well as to Dr. Allison, our faculty adviser, who has given us much help and food for thought.

I'm glad you are enjoying the punch, girls. Goodness knows what went into making it.

It was so awful when the credit company took away the new sofa; my husband was asleep on it at the time.

PRIDE AND PREJUDICE

He doesn't really have stage fright, just a headache, upset stomach, and ulcers.

And there I was, in the middle of the jungle, face to face with a man-eating tiger. So what did I do? I borrowed a fork and joined him.

Well, if she won't marry me, who will?

Fortunately for him, this meet took place on Leap Year Day.

Now what did that little ball ever do to them?

Brookline's superiority put this game on the ice.

She hits nine out of ten balls on the nose.
The tenth one hits her on the nose.

Good tackle. Too bad he doesn't have the ball.

SPORTS

. . . our . . . forces are one team in the game to win regardless of who carries the ball. This is no time for "fancy Dans" who won't hit the line with all they have on every play, unless they can call the signals. Each player on this team—whether he shines in the spotlight of the backfield or eats dirt in the line—must be an all-American.

BASEBALL

With only four lettermen returning—Richard Pastor, David Aronson, David Lynch, and Carl Levine—last year's baseball team lacked experience. Coach Fitzerald's squad won only two games in Suburban League action. Records do not necessarily indicate the sportsmanship and effort shown by a team, and in this area Brookline's team represented the school well.

This year's hopes are higher, for much of the team is still intact. Multi-talented Kevin Fleming will again be covering the short stop position, and be posing a threat to opponents with his daring base running and timely hitting. Alan Nathan, sturdy hard-hitting catcher, returns behind the plate as captain of the team. Kevin McDermott and Jack Sherman are roaming the outfield again, and steady Jeff Cohen guards third base. Fireballer Steve Goldberg, who impressed us last year with a 1-0 shutout of league-leading Cambridge Latin, heads the pitching staff. Behind him is dependable Jerry Labourene. These players, along with a promising group of promoted Jayvees, should produce a formidable team this year.

SPRING TRACK

One of the most popular sports in the spring is outdoor track. The popularity of the sport is shown in the high quality each year of Brookline's spring track team. Led by Chad Finer the team was very strong. Finer ran the 100 yard dash, as well as competing in the broad jump. Don Coons was a state finalist in the javalin, and Jay Baird showed outstanding form in the high jump. Ross Coppelman is another boy that coach McInerney feels should be singled out for his strong showing in the 880 yard run.

BHS' golf team was once again one of the strongest in Massachusetts. Senior standouts Captains Dave Rose and Roy Swartz propelled the team into the state championship playoffs. Other boys who contributed to the team's success were Bruce Freshman, Pete Ditto, Roger Seltzer, and Norm Alper. Much of the credit should rightly go to Coach Bruce who works his players into some of the finest in the state.

TENNIS

This year's tennis team under the direction of Coach McCabe continued the high tradition that Brookline holds each year. The team, led by returning lettermen Captains Jim Naigles and Peter Braudis, was once again in the fight for state honors. The boys felt that the practice conducted throughout the winter months was the main reason for the perennial strength of the team. The power this year was supplied by the strong playing of Erik Berger, Andy Plotkin, John Yates, and Bruce Shpiner.

FOOTBALL

Quarterback Kevin Fleming

Brookline High once again enjoyed the fortunes of a successful football season this past fall. Led by senior captain and quarterback Kevin Fleming, the Brookline varsity eleven achieved a record of 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. The season ended on a happy note as the Brookline boys drove traditional Thanksgiving Day rival Newton down to defeat, 36-22.

Brookline started the season with an inexperienced eleven, bowing to class A champions Weymouth, 27-12. Brookline then went on to post close to 16-8 and 18-0 triumphs over Waltham and Leominster, respectively. A highly-favored Brockton team was forced to battle all the way to gain a 16-16 tie with our fast-improving eleven. In the next game against Quincy, a last-minute drive led by Kevin Fleming gave the red and blue a 16-14 victory. Brookline lost its next game to Arlington, 22-14, but was never out of the ballgame. On the next Saturday Brookline stunned a powerful Beverly team, and ran up a 38-6 victory. Congratulations are due to Coaches Schluntz and Hennessey, who worked this team into one of the finest in the state.

Led by Kevin Fleming, Kevin Lynch, Kevin McDermott, and Andy Levas, the team enjoyed a most successful season. Congratulations also rightly go to the rest of the boys on the squad, for without them none of the victories would have been possible. Bruce Cochrane and Ken Rosenthal are co-captains of next year's team.

HOCKEY

For the second year in a row Brookline's hockey team qualified to play in the state tournament. The team, this year termed a "defensive team," was led by the superb goal-tending of Jeff Cohen. Kevin Fleming led the team in scoring for the second year in a row. Captain Ray Plagge along with junior Barry McCarthy were also bright stars in Brookline's galaxy. The high point of the season was reached when Brookline played the strong Arlington team to a 0-0 tie. Extra hustle and determination characterized the BHS team.

TRACK

Although Brookline's winter track team did not enjoy a winning season, the individual performances this winter were outstanding. Captain Chad Finer rolled up a long list of honors. Besides being State champion in the 300 yard run, he also ran a 5.6 50 yard dash, and a leg of the relay team. Along with teammate Jay Baird, he qualified for the Nationals, which are held in New York's Madison Square Garden each winter. Brookline's relay team this year was one of the finest the school has had in the last few years. The boys ran well this year and coach McInerney was pleased with their performance.

The boys are getting ready for the six international events: free exerercise, long horse vaulting, side horse, parallel bars, the high bar, and still rings. Coach Devio feels that the team will be quite capable in competition against their suburban league rivals next year.

Paul Barges and John Merrick try out new holds.

Brookline High's wrestling team, under Coach Marsh, turned in one of the most surprising performances of the school year. In its first year of varsity competition, the team finished third in the state meet. Even more outstanding is the fact that Senji Izumi (121), Bill Barges (167), and John Merrick (177) were state champions in their respective weight classes. Barry Finer finished third in the 115 pound class. During regular season play, the team compiled a record of seven wins and three defeats. Mr. Marsh felt that the showing of the team can be attributed to fine individual performances coupled with a great deal of hard work and devotion on the part of every member of the team.

BASKETBALL

Brookline High's basketball team, led by the high scoring of Jay Hanflig, Mark Mazer, Ken Green, and Mike Stacey, was able to compile a respectable record for the 1963-1964 season. Brookline opened the year by edging Arlington 62-57, with Jay Hanflig racking up 19 points to lead the way. Brookline then scored 53-52 and 63-61 triumphs over Newton South and Weymouth, respectively.

Some tough scheduling faced the team at this point, but the boys were able to get on their feet after two straight losses to high ranking Rindge and Brockton. Brookline defeated Newton 65-58 before a capacity crowd of 1500 on our home court. The following seniors played exceptionally well in this encounter: Marty Rosenthal, Jack Sherman, Charlie Reed, and Murray Dubick. The team has shown desire and drive all throughout the season. Their efforts, however, reached their peak in a losing cause. Playing for the second time

DAY AT SCHOOL

Perhaps the most significant piece of the Brookline High School puzzle is the student himself. In order to fully understand him we must follow him through a day at school.

School begins in many different ways. Those students who arrive before the 8:20 bell can be found socializing in the halls or running errands.

At 8:40 the real work of the day begins.

With the comprehensive curriculum students can choose courses ranging from chemistry to cooking.

From 11:00 to 12:30 lunch provides a pleasant break in the daily schedule of classes.

Students may study or socialize after eating in the cafeteria.

Not every student rushes home at 2:00. Many participate in club activities, dramatic productions, and sports.

For some the school day ends at 2:00; others leave tired at 4:00. Each person's day was unique, a separate piece, but each part meshes together to form BHS's completed design.

As we prepare to leave the high school, each of us should consider the extent of his contribution to this intricate jigsaw puzzle by asking himself if he has replaced in new ideas the equivalent of the knowledge he has gained here. More important, we hope that in stepping out into the world, we are prepared to offer even more of our newly developed personalities to a more extensive, more complex world of adult society.
